JOB ATTRIBUTES QUESTIONS

Below are suggested interview questions on each of the top seven attributes. Use these as a guide to write questions that could be more job-specific. Once the list is completed, assure that all candidates respond to the same questions.

1. PROBLEM SOLVING: The ability to identify key components of a problem to formulate a solution or solutions.
 - Give me an example of a difficult problem you solved at work and describe how you went about solving it.
 - What problem have you solved in your career that has provided you the greatest sense of fulfillment?
 - Give me an example of a problem at work that you just couldn't solve. What did you do?
 - Give me an example of how you approach a complex or difficult problem.
 - How do you identify resources and data and go about organizing them when working on a project or problem?
 - When confronted with a difficult or complex issue how do you prepare yourself with the right attitude and expectation?

2. INTERPERSONAL SKILLS: The ability to interact with others in a positive manner.
 - Describe for me the most difficult business relationship you have ever had to deal with. Why was it so difficult? What did you do to make the relationship go more smoothly?
 - What is the most stressful or difficult situation where you had to maintain your composure at work? What did you do to maintain the composure? How do you think you did? If you had it to do over, what would you do the same? Differently?
 - What is your single biggest communication strength? How do you know? What is your greatest business success acquired as a result of this strength?
 - Describe the most difficult, demanding person you have ever encountered. What made them so difficult? What did you do to better understand and relate to them?
 - Give me an example of a situation when a personal relationship you had or developed was helpful in a business situation. How did you cultivate that relationship without appearing to be patronizing?
 - Give me a specific example of a situation where you had to develop a productive relationship with someone whose point of view was different from your own. How did you go about sustaining the relationship?

JOB ATTRIBUTES QUESTIONS

3. SELF MANAGEMENT: The ability to prioritize and complete tasks in order to deliver desired outcomes within allotted time frames.
 - Give me a specific example of a project that you were responsible for organizing from beginning to end. How did you go about it? How did you deal with changes that arose? How did you ensure that the project stayed on track? What was the final outcome? What did you learn from this experience?
 - Have you ever faced a day in which you just couldn't get everything done that you had planned? How did you handle it? (If the position sometimes requires extra hours, simply ask the candidate if they are able to fulfill that requirement).
 - Do you consider yourself to be a good time manager? Share with me the planning system you use and show me how you use it.
 - We have all had times where it was necessary to balance work and personal or family time. Give me an example of a time when you had too many things to do in both areas of your life and describe how you went about prioritizing your time.
 - How much time do you spend getting organized on a daily basis? When do you do it? What impact do you think this habit has on your results?
 - What is the difference between activity and results? How do you personally define this difference?

4. RESULTS ORIENTATION: The ability to identify actions necessary to complete tasks and obtain results.
 - Give me an example of one thing in your life that you have worked on for what you consider to be a very long time with no distraction or break. What did you dislike most about that? How successful were you in completing it? How long a time did you work it?
 - Give me an example of a time when someone didn't follow-through on a commitment to you. What did you do about it? How do you make sure that others around you follow through on their commitments? How do you ensure that you do?
 - Give me an example of a project that you have completed and the outcome. Please give me the most essential components of that project that played the biggest role in its completion.
 - Describe a plan you've developed for something you are currently working on. What are the most essential components of that plan...the things that must be accomplished or the plan won't work?
 - Tell me about a time when you missed a deadline. What were the consequences? What did you do differently the next time you faced a deadline?
 - Have results ever been less than stellar for a project you've worked on? What caused the results to be less than great? How did it happen?

JOB ATTRIBUTES QUESTIONS

5. CUSTOMER FOCUS: A commitment to customer satisfaction.
 - Give me an example of a time when you knew the customer was wrong but you had to accommodate their wishes. How did you handle it? What did you say? What did you do? How did you feel about it?
 - Tell me about a situation where you were able to anticipate a customer's needs before the customer even brought up what they wanted.
 - Describe a situation where you went over and above what was expected to exceed a customer's expectations. How did you feel about that? How comfortable would you feel about doing that regularly?
 - In your view, what makes some customers more valuable than others? Should all customers be treated the same?
 - Give me an example of when you had to go the extra mile to meet a commitment that someone else had made to a customer. What, specifically, did you do? How did you feel about having to meet a commitment made by someone else?
 - Is there ever a time when a customer who is in error should be confronted? If so, give me an example of when that would be and how you would do that.

6. DIPLOMACY AND TACT: The ability to treat others fairly, regardless of personal biases or beliefs.
 - Give me an example of a time when you had to exhibit diplomacy while under pressure on the job. How did you do that?
 - Give me an example of a time when you or someone you know set aside their personal agenda for the sake of larger, business-oriented issues? What did you think of that?
 - How do you identify key stakeholders in a relationship? Give me an example of a time when you not only identified them but also maintained a positive relationship with a diverse group of people at all levels of an organization.
 - Give me an example of a time when you overcame internal resistance or "politics" to an idea or project. How did you go about doing that?
 - Is there ever a time when your personal agenda should supersede the needs of your organization? If so, when?
 - Describe the most politically sensitive situation in which you ever found yourself. What were the three things you did to ensure that you maintained your position in that situation without offending anyone?

JOB ATTRIBUTES QUESTIONS

7. CONTINUOUS LEARNING: The ability to take personal responsibility and action toward learning and implementing new ideas, methods and technologies.

 - What do you enjoy learning about? Why is that? How does it help you?

REWARDS/CULTURE QUESTIONS

Read the following suggested interview questions as they relate to the rewards/culture environment of the job. Modify the questions to be more job-specific and assure that all candidates are asked the same questions.

1. THEORETICAL

- Which is more important, action or knowledge?
- Would you consider yourself to be an expert in something? What is it? How did you go about gaining the knowledge?
- Tell me what you especially like or enjoy about learning things. What topics or subjects do you enjoy?
- How comfortable are you in taking the time, energy and effort required to master a subject or topic you currently know very little about? How about one in which you have very little interest?

2. UTILITARIAN/ECONOMIC

- How important is earning a lot of money to you? What do you consider to be a "lot of money"?
- Where would you like to be, financially, in 5 years? 10 years? Why?
- What role does earning a significant income play in your job choices? In staying in a job?
- Would you consider yourself to be a bottom line, practical thinker or are you more theoretical or philosophical? Why do you say that?

3. TRADITIONAL/REGULATORY

- Is there an absolute right and absolute wrong? How do you decide what is right and what is wrong?
- Tell me about "rules." Give me an example of a rule that you follow relative to managing or leading others. Where did you learn that rule? How flexible is it?
- Have there been situations in your work experience when you were absolutely convinced that your rules or standards were superior to your employers? If so, why were they better? Were you able to convince your employees that yours were better?
- Do you sometimes feel that things would be easier and better if there were fewer rules and procedures? Please elaborate.

BEHAVIORAL QUESTIONS

Read the following suggested interview questions as they relate to the most desired behavioral traits to perform the job. Modify the questions to be more job-specific and assure that all candidates are asked the same questions.

1. FREQUENT INTERACTION WITH OTHERS
